

In a city where the one constant is change, The Mint Tavern pays homage to Las Vegas' fabulous past through a blend of Sinatra-era class and modern pop-culture. Pull up a chair and let one of our classically inspired cocktails remind you of how Las Vegas used to be...

THE DEVIANTS

THE VEGAS VIXEN

The branches on this cocktail family tree are long and wide! Ours is a vodka version of the East Harlem bar Lion Lion's Business With Pleasure, which is a take on Sasha Petraske's cocktail The Business, a lime juice version of the classic Bee's Knees.

vodka, pineapple juice, fresh lime, honey syrup

ONE LUCKY S.O.B.

Kind of a cherry cola version of a Cuba Libre, which has been around since about 1898. That's when American soldiers stationed in Cuba during the Spanish-American War combined Cuban rum with cola and lime juice and would toast to the island's newfound freedom!

rum, heering, fresh lime, bitters, cola

FLORENCE'S COUSIN

The Negroni is a classic, invented in 1919 at Caffè Casoni (in Florence, Italy, of course) when Count Camillo Negroni wanted a stronger version of the Americano cocktail. Aperol subs in for Campari in this version. The Count would be proud!

gin, aperol, sweet vermouth

THE CLASSICS

BROWN DERBY

Fun Fact: this cocktail was not invented at the Brown Derby restaurant in Los Angeles, but rather at their Hollywood neighbor, The Vendome Club. It's been around since 1938 (the drink that is). Unfortunately, both joints have been lost to the sands of time, but sometimes the classics don't ever need to change.

FRISCO SOUR

Story time: long ago, Sahara Avenue was named San Francisco Avenue, and was the SOUTHERN border of Las Vegas! Times and names have changed here, but this cocktail is the same as it was when it was developed during Prohibition. It's only fitting to have a drink named for our spot here in Frisco Plaza.

whistlepig farmstock rye, benedictine fresh lemon

TOMMY'S MARGARITA

An unexpected find of agave nectar at a health food store in the early 90s led to a change of the Margarita recipe at Tommy's Mexican Restaurant in San Francisco. Their lucky find is your benefit now! Perfectly simple, and simply perfect!

tequila, fresh lime, agave
